

Complaints and Compliments Policy

Learning Disability Network London

August 2025

At LDN London we are passionate about what we do and how we do it.

- We are fair
- We expect to be challenged
- We aim to improve
- We are creative
- We are energetic
- We are enthusiastic

We have high standards and we welcome comments about how we are doing so we can make sure we improve.

We want you to use this complaints and comments policy to tell us when we have done something you are unhappy with so we can stop doing it.

We also want to hear about when we do things well so we can keep doing this well.

We will

- ✓ Listen to what you have to say

- ✓ Do something to make things better for you

- ✓ Say sorry (apologise) when we have made a mistake

- ✓ Learn from our mistakes and share good things you tell us we have done

- ✓ Listen to everyone equally

- ✓ Make sure that no one is treated badly or victimised because of making a complaint

When you tell us something we have done well we will make sure people are thanked.

Report serious and frequent complaints to the Council, the Care Quality Commission, our Trustees, and the Chief Executive.

If the complaint means you may be being abused we will also tell the police.

We keep a record of every complaint and compliment we receive and the outcome on a digital application.

Theses records are secure and we password protect them so that only people that are allowed to read them can.

This is to help us to make sure we follow up on what we have learned and to make improvements or changes.

How to make a complaint or give a compliment

Stage 1

Tell a member of the team or manager of the service about what has happened and, if possible, what you think should be done.

They will write it all down. If it is a problem they will try to sort things out straight away.

The manager will tell a senior manager who will make sure everything is followed up.

If you have a complaint about the manager, you should tell someone else you trust.

If you don't want to speak to someone in your service, you can contact other people who are all based at our Head Office at 16A Croxley Road.
